

Tri-Service Vision Conservation and Readiness Program

US Army Center for Health Promotion and Preventive Medicine

Bldg. E1570 Stark Road
APG/EA, MD 21010-5403
(410) 436-2714 or DSN 584-2714

Mission: To optimize vision readiness of Department of Defense health care beneficiaries.

- We support DoD warfighters' vision, optical and eye health (VOE) readiness.
- We support the occupational safety and health of DoD employees.

Vision: To be the center of excellence for vision conservation and readiness support to the Department of Defense.

Vision Ready is Mission Ready!

Products and Services

- Policy, Doctrine, and Standards
- Studies, Research and Surveillance
- Automation Services
- Local Vision Conservation and Readiness Program Assistance

Special Developmental Programs

- Vision, Optical and Eye Health criteria, classification, and reporting
- Eye injury and vision readiness tracking
- Joint Services General Purpose Protective Mask (JSGPM)
- M-40 series Protective Mask
- The Military Eye Protection System (MEPS) for next generation battlefield Ballistic-Laser Protection
- Deployable Field Optometry Set

We exist to support the DoD in vision conservation and readiness—please contact us if you need any assistance in this area.

Please visit our web site at:

<http://chppm-www.apgea.army.mil/dcpm/vcp/vcp.htm>

